Special Events Findings

Special Events Help Define the City: Dunedin's culture is defined in large part by its highland games, arts festivals, parades, green markets, and other public events.

Fewer, Better Events: The success of special events has created problems of excessive demands on the city staff capacity, congestion, competition, and variable quality. Fewer events done well best serves Dunedin citizens.

Public Art:
Martin County, Florida

Special Events Objectives

Coordinate special events so that these advance City and citizen priorities and minimize negative impact.

Create an events coordinator position to provide better management of special events.
