Lifelong Learning

► MUSIC FOR CAREGIVERS—Thursdays 11-12noon in February

If you are a caregiver who has a heart for making music, you are invited to a special program just for caregivers and their disabled family member. Come and learn how to play the mountain dulcimer. This three stringed instrument has a lovely sound and is easily learned by persons with no musical background. The only requirement is a sense of rhythm. Your family member is invited to join you and listen to the music. Limited to six students. INSTRUMENTS WILL BE PROVIDED.

Suggested donation: $15.

► SPANISH FOR TRAVELERS - Mondays, 7-8:00pm

Basic Spanish for beginners will be taught by Trudi Kearns of Global Language Center. Spanish for travelers: learning how to greet, order food, shop, renting a car, count and ask directions will make your foreign experience more enjoyable and will be appreciated by the locals. This is a group lesson of 4 classes for the month. Monthly Fee: $40/Card, $60/No Card.

► SAFE DRIVING CLASS - TBA, 1-5:00pm

AARP offers this great driving class for drivers 55 and older. Classes aim to improve driving skills and prevent accidents. Fee: $12 for AARP member/$14 for non-member. Please call Bob Hassell at (727) 443-0148 to register for a class.

► SKETCH GROUP - Thursdays, 6-8:30pm

This established group of like-minded sketch enthusiasts has been meeting for many years to benefit from their shared interest. They encourage others to join the weekly sketching with a live model. All art mediums welcome! Fee: $2/ID Card; $3/No Card.

► MUNCH N'TELL - A story sharing program Thursdays, 11:30-1:30pm FREE

Everybody's got stories! Bring your bag / boxed lunch to the conference room at the Hale Center for some good old fashioned story swapping! Do you remember your first crush? Your first day of school? What pet made you laugh. Did you remember when you got into so much trouble that...? Each week we'll have a different story starter. Share your memories with moderator Maureen Belote.
