Letters to Our Friends...

“Spring is the time of plans and projects.” Leo Tolstoy

So many plans and projects...clean the closets, finish the sampler, purge the junk drawer - my lists are endless! BUT! I would rather spend my time reading. I just finished The Paris Wife by Paula McLain, The Winemaker's Wife by Kristin Harmel, and in progress, The London Seance Society by Sarah Penner, with Less by Andrew Sean Greer waiting in the wings! So what are you reading? Have you considered joining either (or both) the Library's Contemporary Book Club or the new Mystery Book Club? As you make your plans, perhaps you will consider joining one of them. Author Kristin Harmel will be our guest speaker/presenter in June for our Author's Visit. This will serve as our 2023 Milliken event. I encourage you all to come and hear this presentation. Details are forthcoming.

Still planning things to do? Stop in at the Library and check out a Museum pass. FREE family admission is hard to ignore! Have you reserved a spot for viewing the Kellogg Mansion 3D experience at the Library? Again, it is a free opportunity and it is awesome! Recently I came across an article from the New York Public library on "How to Behave In A Library." Perhaps you will relate to some of the items or find humor in others.

"How to Behave in a Library:

1. It's okay if you can't remember the title of a book you're looking for. Or the author. Or when it was published. Do you at least know the color of the cover?
 2. You may want to high-five staff when your hold comes in, but let's not make it awkward.
 3. Please don't shush the librarians.
 4. Reshelfing books seems helpful, but it's worse when you put books in the wrong spot, so just let us do it.
 5. Never order a pizza for delivery at the library.
 6. If you're going to use your phone, use it to check out an e-book, not loudly schedule a doctor's appointment.
 7. Telling the librarian who recommended a book to you that you loved it will make their day. (And telling them you didn't like it will help them make better recommendations for you. We can take it - library workers have thick skins+cardigans.)
 8. Refrain from trying to ride the book cars. We need them in good shape for after-hours staff races.
 9. The library is the perfect spot for a meet cute.
 10. Don't worry about late fines - we don't have them.
 11. Tips are mandatory - tell your friends how cool libraries are.
- New York Public Library"

To all who helped make our Annual Book Sale a HUGE SUCCESS - THANK YOU!!!
Happy Spring/Summer! Enjoy!

Malla S. Kolhoff
Friends President

Lately, I've been on a reading kick. My TBR (To Be Read) pile is slightly shrinking. Does anyone else have a nightstand loaded with books? I've been so excited to read non-fiction and fiction and I'm trying to read as many Kristin Harmel books that I can. The Book of Lost Names and The Winemaker's Wife are my favorites so far. She will be our visiting author this year on Thursday, June 29, 2023, at 6:30pm. Tickets will be on sale soon.

This is a joint program with our Dunedin Friends of the Library and the Dunedin Public Library Foundation. Along with all the great programs offered for kids, teens and adults that you can read about in the newsletter and check out online, I'm always trying to promote the amazing services that we offer at Dunedin Library.

To find out more about all our unique services, visit the How Do I? page on our website:
<https://www.dunedingov.com/city-departments/library/how-do-i>

We have our library of things that you can check out: ukuleles, wifi hotspots, museum passes, seeds, and book club bags. What I love to share are the services that are so uniquely Dunedin Library - notary services, curbside pick-up, homebound delivery, interlibrary loan, and even reserving time to experience the Kellogg Mansion Virtual Exhibit.

Beginning April 4, 2023, the Dunedin Library will be a Passport Acceptance Facility. You can make an appointment to get your passport and photo done. No renewals, but new passports. Visit the How Do I? page, for all the information on our passport service.

Your public library has resources online and in-house, so stop by and visit and we will be your passport to the world.
Happy Reading!

STORYTIMES

Storytimes

Three times a week we'll have a story time for different age ranges. The age ranges listed are merely a guideline; you know your child best, so select the story time you think will suit them best!

Baby and Me (Birth - 18 months)

Mondays @ 10AM

A fun introduction to stories, rhymes, and songs.

Toddler Time (18-36 months)

Wednesdays @ 10:30AM

Utilizing early literacy skills toddlers will experience the excitement of books, songs, fingerplays, and a short literature-based video.

Preschool Story Time (3 - 5 years)

Thursdays @ 10:30AM

Join us for a fun time as we enjoy thematic books, songs, fingerplays, and literature-based videos that are so important to prepare children for kindergarten.

Saturday Stories (All ages)

Once a month Ms. Jennifer will be offering a Saturday story time! Check the program schedule on the next column of this page to find out when, or come in to the library to pick up a physical copy of our monthly schedule!

Saturday Stories
