AARP Network of Age Friendly Communities:

Tiki Ride being used has sponsors of Flannigan's, Clear Sky, and Mease Manor, holds 13 passengers, set schedule and can be rented

Meeting of Transportation Task Force with Greg Rice that was supposed to occur in February never occurred

Sharon stated that Jennifer Bramley requested that the Committee work on one domain at a time due to city resources and requested that the first focus be on the transportation domain.

Also Greg Rice was to write up objectives in line with the AARP Age Friendly initiative guidelines but to DCOA's knowledge that has not happened.

Suggestion was made to produce a Transportation Brochure for the city (using sponsors) with various options available to the public. Also suggested we host a Transportation Event at the Hale Center during the summer.

Dawn will email AARPP Committee concerning this topic to identify existing resources.

Michael W. moved that the DCOA host a Transportation Open House for the community and production of a brochure in August, Karla L. 2nd. Passed A work group for this project was formed Sandi S., Karla L., Sharon W., and Lorraine T.
